Dear Sir:

Your letter of January 13, 1964, first received by my wife, brother, and under physician's care here in Chicago and has been away from home for two months. I am sorry to hear of your illness.

I am sure you will find a doctor for you to take care of your illness. I am sure you will be able to take care of your
be able to take care of your illness.

I appreciate your efforts to help him claim his attention to affairs. I am sure you will be able to take care of your
be able to take care of your
illness.

Hand address to me 9a McKitt

Your letter of January 13 has just reached me. My wife has been ill and under the doctor's care here, and I have not been able to write you for some time. I am now in the hospital for the treatment.

I was very well, find a doctor but could not get better, toward my account and find a doctor there of the balance and ready later this month, in my house.

I appreciate your efforts to bring this claim to my attention. I will make a proper will now and am anxious to minimize the Federal estate tax on my estate.

Mail addressed to me 901 W. 11th 4416 34th Ave. Long Beach City will reach me there

Very truly yours

Dear son, Mike,

I am very happy to know that you, Anne, and Andrea Anne will come to visit as soon. Please let me know how soon.

Mike, a few days ago, three FBI men were here to question me about you. They asked me if I loaned you money. I said, no. They asked me if you had property in New Jersey. I said, no. The "no" answers were made to stop the questioning because I feared for your safety. Now it occurs to me that perhaps my unintentional lie about loaning you money may cause you trouble if the FBI questioned you, so I am writing this letter to admit that I did loan you money.

I am very worried about you, my son, so please write soon and tell me how you are. Please give all my love to Anne and Andrea.

Love to you, Sophie Sidorovic
Your Mother,

Hello Mike,

How are you and the family? I haven't written to you in a long time and it is pleasant to do so again. Your Mom and Dad are being entertained by Anna-belle who is three years old now. Peggy is six! Now we are getting old! Your folks are in good health but are exceedingly worried over your welfare. Andrea must be a big girl now. How is Anne? Are you planning for an addition to the family soon? Write soon.

Best regards

Joe
